

Speed incident response and enhance information sharing

By enabling remote solutions for secure real-time video conferencing anywhere, anytime you can:

- Maintain daily operations remotely
- Deliver critical services without physical contact
- Enhance collaboration across departments/agencies

DoJ Grants now available

COVID-19 Emergency Supplemental Funding program can be used for real-time video solutions

Stay safe and secure with Cisco Webex

- Create secure remote working environments for administrative and other staff
- Empower real-time video collaboration and information sharing between local, county, state and federal agencies during daily operations, emergencies, and large-scale incidents
- Enhance community outreach, enable remote training, and integrate task force operations

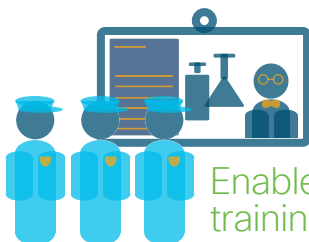

Stream live video from patrol vehicles

Plan joint response w/multiple agencies

Maintain daily business operations

Enable remote training

Connect with health departments

Enhance community outreach

We're here to help you transition your department to remote video solutions that are simple to use and feature industry-leading end-to-end security.

720-841-1952

awalker@enterpriseti.com

The bridge to possible